

Cancer support group

WoW!

MOT

for people living with or affected by cancer

Have you or anyone close to you been affected by cancer? Would you like to meet other local people in a similar position?

Why not come along to our new cancer support group within the Limelight Centre. We offer a safe and confidential space in which you can share experiences with others and take part in a range of free health and wellbeing activities and workshops.

Refreshments provided. Reasonable travel expenses paid.

Tuesdays, 1pm to 3pm
